Band has two sponsors in place for homecoming and one for the final home game

Homecoming sponsors are James Parker Real Estate and Hinson Team Realty

Last Home game sponsor is Pediatric Therapy Services

Possible website sponsors??

Band Director Report: the October 4 show was good and the October 5 band competition at Glenvar went well

The drum line missed winning by three points

5th overall high score for the band of the day

Miles had a score of 92 which was the second highest score for our division in Drum Major and his score was the 4th overall highest score for that group

For the George Wythe Competition, Radford will perform at 7:10pm that date; band is in AAA group; the directors expect the band music scores to go up for this competition

Director will check on the date for the Radford Christmas parade

A chaperone sign-up will be sent out within the week for the homecoming parade make sure to park somewhere other than Sal's parking lot

Senior Band member banners? Donna will check with Amy Price to see who made the previous signs

Band has 5 seniors for 2024/25

Slide Show volunteers? Radford's band is on YouTube; Mrs. Goff volunteered at the meeting to work on the slide show

There was an issue with the wrist bands at the Glenvar competition

make sure that the bands are given to the students and chaperones first and that takes place while the band is still on the bus

Mr. Frankenberger sent an email about the issue to Glenvar

At the October 4 home game, there were people sitting in the section that has been marked for the band and they refused to move – Caution tape will be used to mark off the section for all future home games

Saturday October 12 food order will be placed with Food City this week

Currently have 15 cases of water and plenty of snacks for the kids for practice

Someone suggested that we get shelving for the snack room

No date was given for the next meeting and the meeting ended
